The image shows two overlapping windows. The background window is titled "Autodesk Licensing - Activation Options" and displays the Autodesk logo and "Product License Activation Options". It lists the following information:

- Product: Autodesk AutoCAD 2017
- Serial Number: 696-69696969
- Product Key: 00111
- Request code: 5SUT 8XFL PHY9 K02X P0HP WHSG KEHW T5PZ

Below this information, there are two radio button options for activation:

- Connect now and activate! (Recommended)
- I have an activation code from Autodesk

The second option is selected, and there is a grid of 16 empty input boxes for entering an activation code, with a "Clear All" button below it. At the bottom of the window are "Back", "Close", and "Next" buttons.

The foreground window is titled "X-FORCE" and "Autodesk 2017 products". It shows the "Request:" field containing the same request code as the background window. The "Activation:" field contains the text "And press Generate". Below these fields are three buttons: "Patch", "Generate", and "Quit". A green arrow points from the "Patch" button in the foreground window to the "Request:" field in the background window. Another green arrow points from the "Generate" button in the foreground window to the "Activation:" field in the background window. The foreground window also features a banner at the bottom that says "SMOKING THE COMPETITION!".
